Peoplemaking specializes in social and emotional development and mental health and wellbeing, aiming to make psychology interesting and understandable so that it can be applied to working and living in our communities.

Peoplemaking is a specialist bookshop, with books and resources that contribute to the building of healthy relationships at home and at work.

Contact us to discuss the needs of your support group, community group as well as individual needs.

Peoplemaking is an initiative of Don Grose and Rosemary Allen, who have backgrounds in psychology and education.
